November, 2005

Dear Friend of 'These Immortal Chaplains':

It is with great pleasure that we announce a recent $30,000 grant — $20,000 operating, $10,000 challenge — from the Arthur M. Blank Family Foundation in Atlanta, GA. This grant is fundamental to developing our foundation in its new location in Long Beach, CA and for our annual 'Immortal Chaplains Prize for Humanity'.

In order to further our organization's outreach we are relocating the foundation and office on board the historic Queen Mary in Long Beach Harbor. Here a memorial sanctuary and diorama depicting the last moments on the Dorchester will have exposure to nearly one million visitors per year. The great ship, known as the 'Grey Ghost' by U-boat crews, was the most successful troopship of WWII carrying almost 1 million troops to Europe. Consequently, there is a natural tie to the legacy of the four Immortal Chaplains who died with 670 others on the torpedoed troopship Dorchester on February 3, 1943.

On Sunday, February 5, 2006, we will celebrate this year's Prize for Humanity honorees and the opening of our new office and the interfaith memorial sanctuary on board the Queen Mary. From 2-4 pm, we will present the annual Prize for Humanity to those who risked all to protect others of a different faith or ethnicity. It is with some pride we share with you that our 2000 Honoree, Paul Rusesabagina, became widely known through our presentation of the 'Prize' and consequently the subject of the film "Hotel Rwanda". We hope you will join us for this event and to celebrate this exciting change for our foundation 'family', which we consider you to be.

The challenge grant of $10,000 is just that — a challenge to match the Blank Foundation funds with others from our supporters by December 31st. In this time of many requests for your help, we urge that this request does not go unheard. It is important to continue the long-term legacy of these Immortal Chaplains and to honor the sacrifice of the Dorchester dead through the far-reaching impact of our foundation. We ask that you consider the importance of a timely gift now with the knowledge that it will be matched by the Blank Family Foundation.

We look forward to your joining us February 5th in Long Beach and please help to make this memorial interfaith sanctuary a reality.

Sincerely,

David P. Fox
